11:00am - 12:00pm

Unionville Post Office

1 Main St

Unionville, NY 10988 □ Goshen, NY – U.S. Representative John Hall will hold the latest in his series of “Congress on Your Corner” events this coming Monday, giving residents of Unionville the opportunity to meet with Congressman Hall and share thoughts and concerns directly with him in their own community. The event will run from 11:00am to 12:00pm at the Unionville Post Office.

"Just as it's always important for my constituents to know where I stand on important issues, it's also critical for me to know where my constituents stand," said Hall. "The goal of Congress on Your Corner is to facilitate this type of dialogue and make it easier for my constituents and their elected representative to work together."

Since taking office last January, Congressman Hall has traveled throughout the 19th district, holding several “Community Congress” events and other public forums on issues ranging from health care to energy independence.

The Congress on Your Corner program, however, allows residents from around the district and the Hudson Valley to meet directly and informally with Hall, express concerns and opinions, and bring casework for Hall and his staff.

"My constituents need to know that I'm committed to reaching out to them and actually showing up in their communities," Hall added.

This Monday's Unionville Congress on Your Corner is free and open to the public. Future meetings will be announced to the media in advance and posted on Hall's website:
